REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the prior art fails to teach, disclose, or suggest, either alone or in combination, a semiconductor device comprising:

- a. A plurality of upper carrier substrates mounted on the lower carrier substrate, each of the upper carrier substrates including a plurality of semiconductor chips stacked thereon; and a protruding electrode group arranged on the lower carrier substrate, the protruding electrode group excluded from a region where a semiconductor chip is mounted on the lower carrier substrate so as to be arranged to be overlapped by ends of the upper carrier substrates as instantly claimed, and in combination with the additional limitations; or
- b. A first electronic component mounted on a first carrier substrate; and a rectangle-shaped second carrier substrate bonded to the first carrier substrate so as to arrange the first electronic component under a region of the rectangle-shaped second carrier substrate that does not have protruding electrodes as instantly claimed, and in combination with the additional limitations.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
